TWENTY WORDS OR LESS, ONE WEEK FIFTY CENTS PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

PORTLAND, Feb. 25.—Shipments of Oregon potatoes to the South for the week are estimated at between 25 and 30 cars. The relatively light movement for this time of the year, according to local deals, is due to the fact that for the time the Southern markets are quieter and easier than for some time past. In San Francisco and Los Angeles river stocks are still an important factor, and though there is some demand for Oregon, the trade is not yet clamoring for them.

Eggs Steady And Unchanged.
The egg market held about steady at yesterday's quotations today, and dealers for the most part look for little or no further change this week. Receipts were liberal, but a part of the surplus of the past few days has been sent to the northern markets, which relieved the local situation materially. The general range today was 21 to 22 cents.

With arrivals only moderate, the poultry market was in good shape, especially on hens and chickens. Turkeys and geese have been steadily weakening for some time, but no further changes were made in quotations today.

Butter and Cheese Active.
At 35 to 36 cents a pound standard city creamery was firm and active today, but the makers who quote the two prices for the time show no disposition to get together. Cream supplies are still short of requirements, but are increasing, and as a result a general decline of a cent or two may be expected in the near future.

The cheese market showed no change from the condition of several days past. Stocks on hand at all the stores are far short of the needs of the trade. No changes were announced today.

Bananas To Go Up Shortly.
As the result of a lift in prices by the United Fruit Company, otherwise known as the banana trust at New Orleans and other shipping points, local dealers say that within a few days prices to the local trade will have to be advanced to 54 cents a pound in the city and 6 cents for the trade outside. Two cars of the fruit are expected to reach the city next Monday, and the change in prices will probably take place then. A lighter supply of the fruit is given as the reason for the advance by the trust.
